

TABLES AND FIGURES

Tables

1 Development of Japanese Nongovernmental Advocacy Networks 1975–2005	12–13
2 Historical Periodization of Japanese Advocacy NGOs	20–21
3 Examples of Japanese Advocacy NGO Mission Statements	28–30
4 A Protestography of Japanese Advocacy NGOs Since the Early 1990s	36–37
5 Another Japan Is Possible: Alternative Knowledges of Japanese Advocacy NGO Networks	342

Figures

1 Kyoto Social Forum, “Another World Is Possible,” December 11–12, 2004	45
2 Nonregular Employment Forum Inaugural Symposium, Tokyo, December 15, 2004	85
3 Japanese Farmers’ Protest at the Fifth World Trade Organization Ministerial Meeting in Cancun, Mexico, September 2003	115
4 World Peace Now, Peace Parade in Tokyo, December 14, 2004	141
5 Information Booth of the Japanese Network of People Living with HIV / AIDS at the Seventh International Congress on AIDS in Asia and the Pacific, Kobe, Japan, July 2005	187

6	Women's Association Against the Path to War, Relay Talk in Yūrakuchō, Tokyo, December 4, 2004	209
7	Diversity in Japan T-Shirt by Issho Kikaku at the World Conference Against Racism, Racial Discrimination, Xenophobia, and Related Intolerance NGO Forum, Durban, South Africa, August 2001	247
8	Peace Boat	311