

Illustrations

- Map of Shanghai in 1937, xiv
- Father Robert Jacquinet de Besange, S.J., xviii
- Jacquinet in Shanghai, 1937, 2
- Jacquinet's birthplace, 5
- Maintaining his French identity, 13
- Matteo Ricci, 19
- Shanghai's one-armed priest, 25
- Jacquinet in uniform as senior chaplain,
Shanghai Volunteer Corps, 31
- Protecting coffins from the flood, 32
- The Japanese attack Shanghai in 1932, 36
- Refugees seek protection from the fighting, 37
- Chinese refugees fleeing across the Garden Bridge, 50
- Japanese battleships in the Huangpu River, 56
- Japanese soldiers occupying a bridge, 58
- Members of the Nanshi Supervisory Committee, 61
- Meeting with the Japanese consul, 62
- Mayor Yu Hongjun and his wife, 64
- The Jacquinet Zone as shaded on a French map, 66
- Surrounded by warfare, the Zone struggles to survive, 68
- The Jacquinet Zone outlined as a small section of Shanghai, 69
- Refugees press against the closed French Concession gates, 71

- A truckload of refugees enters the Zone, 74
    Jacquinot as “good Samaritan,” 77
This building became Jacquinot’s headquarters in the Zone, 118
    Jacquinot leading a tour of the Zone, 123
Jacquinot with some of the 80,000 children in the Zone, 126
    Refugee children learning a craft, 128
Meeting with the British commander in chief, 132