

Contents

Acknowledgments	ix
Contributors	xi
1. Introduction: State, Families, and the Making of Transitions in Vietnam Danièle Bélanger and Magali Barbieri	I
PART ONE. A NEW SOCIAL CONTRACT
2. State and the Family: Reproductive Policies and Practices Catherine Scornet	47
3. Health Care and the Family in Vietnam Anil Deolalikar	75
PART TWO. THE REDEPLOYMENT OF FAMILY SOLIDARITIES
4. The Family: A Cornerstone in the Current Fight Against HIV/AIDS Myriam de Loenzien	97
5. Doi Moi and Older Adults: Intergenerational Support Under the Constraints of Reform Magali Barbieri	133

PART THREE. MARRIAGE AND
THE TRANSITION TO ADULTHOOD

6. From Youth to Adulthood: Benchmarks and Pathways
in Modern Vietnam 169
*Peter Xenos, Nguyen Duy Khe, Nguyen Huu Minh,
Margaret Sheehan, Vu Manh Loi, Le Thi Minh Chau, and Nguyen Dinh Chung*
7. Family Change in Vietnam's Red River Delta:
From War, to Reunification, to Renovation 203
Rukmalie Jayakody and Vu Tuan Huy
8. The Legacy of Doi Moi, the Legacy of Immigration:
Overseas Vietnamese Grooms Come Home to Vietnam 237
Hung Cam Thai

PART FOUR. GENDER AND THE FAMILY

9. Daughters, Work, and Families in Globalizing Vietnam 265
Danièle Bélanger and Katherine L. Pendakis
10. A Home Divided: Work, Body, and Emotions
in the Post-Doi Moi Family 298
Truong Huyen Chi
11. Household Headship in the Red River Delta, Vietnam:
The Political Construction of the Family 329
Bussarawan Teerawichitchainan

PART FIVE. FAMILY LIVELIHOOD STRATEGIES

12. Household Structure and Employment Strategies in a Changing Economy 365
Xavier Oudin
13. Rural-to-Urban Migration in Vietnam:
A Tale of Three Regions 391
Hy Van Luong
- Afterword 421
Magali Barbieri and Danièle Bélanger
- Index* 429