

CONTENTS

Preface	vii
Acknowledgments	ix
INTRODUCTION
The Debate About Islamism in the Public Sphere Richard C. Martin and Abbas Barzegar	1
PART 1 OPENING POSITIONS
Inclusive Islamism: The Utility of Diversity Donald K. Emmerson	17
Inventing Islamism: The Violence of Rhetoric Daniel M. Varisco	33
PART 2 CRITICAL RESPONSES
The Spectrum of Islamic Politics Graham E. Fuller	51
Terminological Problems for Muslim Lives Amir Hussain	57
Islamism: Whose Debate Is It? Hassan Hanafi	63
Between Etymology and Realpolitik Nadia Yassine	67

vi CONTENTS

Academic Word Games	74
Hillel Fradkin
Islamism: ism or wasm ?	81
Ziba Mir-Hosseini and Richard Tapper
Rejecting Islamism and the Need for Concepts from Within the Islamic Tradition	87
Syed Farid Alatas
Islam at Risk: The Discourse on Islam and Violence	93
Bruce Lawrence
Naming Terror	99
Anouar Majid
Political Islam, Liberalism, and the Diagnosis of a Problem	104
M. Zuhdi Jasser
Ideology, Not Religion	110
Angel Rabasa
Why Islamism Should Be Renamed	116
Feisal Abdul Rauf,

PART 3 RECONSIDERING THE ARGUMENTS

Mitigating Misrepresentation	125
Daniel M. Varisco
Broadening Representation	133
Donald K. Emmerson
Notes	149
Suggestions for Further Reading	179
Contributors	183