

Acknowledgments

Introduction

I. HISTORICAL CONTEXT

1. The Founding of Brickfields and the Prewar Development of Kuala Lumpur
2. The Malayan Emergency, Islamic Reform, and Trajectory of Urban Governmentality in Kuala Lumpur

II. LAW, JUSTICE, AND THE EXPERIENCE OF EVERYDAY LIFE IN BRICKFIELDS, 2000–2002

3. Law, Justice, Disappearance: the Experience of the Time of Radical Transformation
4. Strangers, Counterfeiters, and Gangsters: Figures of Belonging and the Problem of Belief
5. Ambivalent Encounters in the City: Islam, Hinduism, and Urban Governmentality

Conclusion

Notes

Bibliography

Index