

Figures, Tables, and Maps

Figures: The photographs follow page 280

1. Polish parliament members and soldiers in Pinsk.
2. Devorah Mirsky and children, 1919.
3. Monastery by the Pina and church.
4. Church, market, central street.
5. Pina River, cathedral, seminary.
6. View across rooftops, synagogue.
7. Fire brigade and band.
8. Diamond Anniversary, Luria.
9. Inscription for gravestone. Collection of Zvi Gitelman.

Tables

- 1.1. Natural increase in population, 1890–96 3
- 8.1. Contributions and pledges to “Aid to Jewish Pinsk Society, 1917” 317
- 9.1. JDC Funds (in Polish marks) distributed February–May 1920 437
- 10.1. Natural increase of the Pinsk Jewish population, 1927–30, 1934, 1937 460
- 10.2. Workshops and workers, 1937 493
- 10.3. Businesses concerns, 1937 494
- 10.4. Professional practitioners, 1937 495
- 10.5. Vote totals and percentages, 1927, 1930 501
- 10.6. Contributions to Keren Ha-Yesod, 1929 509

xii Figures, Tables, and Maps

- 10.7. Contributions to the Jewish National Fund 510
- 10.8. Alternative contributions to the Jewish National Fund 511
- 10.9. Kehillah budgets and wojewoda authorizations, 1934 575
- 10.10. Kehillah budgets and wojewoda authorizations, 1935 576
- 10.11. Tarbut (Hebrew) gymnasium enrollment, 1922–30 600
- 10.12. Tarbut (Hebrew) gymnasium enrollment, 1930–37 602

Maps

1. Pinsk under the tsars, 1815 xxxvi
2. Pinsk under Polish dominion, 1919 xxxvii