

Contents

	Acknowledgments	v
§ 1	History and Anthropology: Strange Bedfellows Eric Tagliacozzo and Andrew Willford	1
§ 2	In Search of the Colonial Subject David Arnold	27
§ 3	Laughing at Leviathan: John Furnivall, Dutch New Guinea, and the Ridiculousness of Colonial Rule Danilyn Rutherford	50
§ 4	Export Ceramics in Philippine Societies: Historical and Ethnographic Perspectives Eric Tagliacozzo	78
§ 5	Chronotopes of a Dystopic Nation: The Birth of “Dependency” in Late Porfirian Mexico Claudio Lomnitz	102
§ 6	Foretelling Ethnicity in Trinidad: The Post-emancipation “Labor Problem” Viranjini Munasinghe	139

§ 7	The Nationalization of Anthropology: Japan and China in Manchuria Prasenjit Duara	187
§ 8	The Figure of the Tamil in Modern Malaysia Andrew Willford	223
§ 9	Unsettled Stories and Inadequate Metaphors: The Movement to Historical Anthropology David William Cohen	273
	Contributors	295
	Index	299