

Contents

Acknowledgments xi

Prologue:

The Anthropologist Who Came In from the Cold xiii

Abbreviations and Terms xvii

PART ONE BECOMING MILITARIZED

My Brother, My Enemy 1

1 The Military Imaginary:
Soldiers, Myths, and States 3

2 Emotions, Generations, and Death Cults:
Militarization and the Creation of Socialist
Military Personalities 37

3 Coming of Age in the NVA:
The Master Narratives of Militarization 71

PART TWO BEING MILITARIZED

4 The Writing on the Wall:
The NVA Surrenders 99

5 A War of Signs, Images, and Memories:
German Militarics in the Cold War and Unification 104

6 “Unification Has Ruined My Life”:
The Political Economy of the Military Other 134

7 As Germans Among Germans:
Life in the Kameradschaft 162

CONTENTS

8 “We’re the Jews of the New Germany”:
Heroic Victimhood, Fallen Elites, and the Slipperiness of History and Memory 193

9 Death and Allegiance:
Toward an Anthropology of Soldiering 215

Notes 229

Works Cited 247

Index 261