

Table of Contents

List of Tables and Figures	vii
Preface and Acknowledgments	ix
List of Abbreviations and Acronyms	xvii
1 The Twin Problems of Governing Security	1
2 Rethinking Law, Security, and Organizational Structure	19
3 Arming Democracy: Designing Federal Security	50
4 Just How Secure Are You at This Moment? Growing and Elevating Federal Security	69
5 Democracies Need Not Always Be Weak: More Control, and More to Control	82
6 Crosscurrents or Greater Velocity: Shifting Functions, Justifications, and Capacity	100
7 Maybe It's Time to Think Big: Creating DHS and Defining Homeland Security	125
8 The Political Logic and Early Legacy of DHS	151
9 No Matter What Fate May Have in Store: Security and the Nation-State in a World of Economic Risk	190
10 An Organizational Gloss on Separation of Powers	214
Conclusion One Supreme Objective for the Future	226
Notes	239
Bibliography	291
Index	309