

Contents

List of Illustrations and Tables, ix

Acknowledgments, xi

Introduction: The Caste War Uncrossed, 1

1. Men Newly Powerful: How Pueblo Politics Became a Caste War, 10
 2. “The Extremes of Death or Triumph”:
A Society Goes to War, 1847–1851, 58
 3. “Nothing More Than a New Conquest”:
A World Catches Its Breath, 106
 4. “The Roar of a Terrible Tempest”: Liberal Reform and the Civil Wars, 1855–1863, 152
 5. The Empire Comes to Mayab, 203
6. A World (Mostly) Restored: The Paradoxes of the Republic, 253
 7. Peace, Porfirian-Style: East Meets West,
and a People Contort the Past, 297

Conclusion: Violence and the Ghost of Santiago Imán, 343

Notes, 357

Bibliography, 447

Index, 459