

List of Illustrations and Tables

Figures

- I.1 Street in the Old City of Jerusalem 15
- I.2 Jaffa Road, the main boulevard of extramural Jerusalem (the New City) 17
- 1.1 Masses gathered in Jaffa for the proclamation of the constitution, August 1908 29
- 1.2 Public procession in the Old City of Jerusalem 30
- 1.3 Official ceremony in Jerusalem, August 1908 32
- 1.4 A banner bearing the revolutionary slogans “liberty, equality, fraternity” 35
- 1.5 Enver Bey and the “dawn of liberty” 38
- 1.6 The Revival of the Ottoman State 39
- 1.7 Enver and Niyazi, “the heroes who freed the homeland from despotism” 42
- 2.1 Abide-i hürriyet, the Monument of Liberty, Şişli, Istanbul 81
- 2.2 Al-madrasa al-dustüriyya al-waṭaniyya, the Patriotic Constitutional School, Jerusalem 85
- 3.1 Off the coast of Jaffa 102
- 3.2 Voting at Galatasaray Lycée (Istanbul), 1908 117
- 3.3 The opening of the Chamber of Deputies, 1909 118

- 3.4 Jerusalem MP Ruhi al-Khalidi 122
- 4.1 Khalidi Library, Jerusalem 136
- 4.2 Masthead of Al-Quds newspaper 139
- 5.1 Traditional public water fountain in the Old City of Jerusalem 175
- 5.2 Train station in Jerusalem 181
- 5.3 Diploma of the Grand Orient Ottoman 184
- 5.4 Freemasons in Palestine, 1906–15 187
- 5.5 Barkai lodge, new members by religion 188

Maps

- I.1 Muslims, Christians, and Jews in the Ottoman Empire, c. 1895 10
- I.2 Muslims, Christians, and Jews in Ottoman Palestine, early twentieth century 13
- I.3 Demographic distribution in Jerusalem's Old City neighborhoods, 1905–6 14
- I.4 Demographic distribution in Jerusalem's New City neighborhoods, 1905–6 16
- 7.1 Jewish settlements and Zionist colonies in Palestine, 1882–1914 226

Tables

- 3.1 Jerusalem voters, 1908 112
- 3.2 Jerusalem region electoral districts, 1908 113
- 3.3 Jerusalem electoral districts level-1 results, 1908 120