

Maps, Figures, and Tables

Maps

1. Warsaw at the crossroads between central and eastern Europe, c. 1900. xxiii
2. The Pale of Settlement, 1900. xxiv
3. Congress Poland (the Kingdom of Poland), 1900. xxv
4. The streets of Warsaw, c. 1900. xxvi

Figures

1. Warsaw's produce market off the banks of the Wisla (Vistula) River, c. 1900. 28
2. Market in Warsaw's Jewish district, c. 1880. 37
3. David Yosef Gruen (later to become better known as Israel's first prime minister David Ben-Gurion) and childhood friend Shmuel Fuchs, Warsaw, c. 1904. 53
4. Jewish children in the streets of Warsaw, c. 1897. 71
5. Four young Jewish anarchists pose for a studio photo, Warsaw, 1912. 97
6. Jewish water carriers, Warsaw, c. 1900. 121
7. Postcard memorializing Bund martyrs including Shloyme Margolin and Eliezer Cohen, victims of the demonstrations of April 1905. 124
8. Simon's Passage at the corner of Długa and Nalewki streets, Warsaw. 131

xii Maps, Figures, and Tables

9. H. Fridman's Café, Warsaw, 1910.	147
10. Yitzhak Tabenkin and other members of a Poale Zion group, Warsaw, 1905.	153
11. Sholem Aleichem and daughter Ernestina (Tessa), Vilna, c. 1905.	156
12. Jewish children sneaking into Muranower Theater, Warsaw, c. 1910.	159

Table

1. Warsaw's Jewish and general populations, 1864–1910.	51
--	----