

Contents

A Note on Usage	ix
Acknowledgments	xi
Preface	xiii

Part I: Body and Mind

1	“To Push Back the Shadow upon the Dial of Time”: The Astonishing New Facts of Life and Death	3
2	The Biological Self	17
3	Sex O’Clock in America	45
4	The Neurophysiological Mind—or Not	66

Part II: The New Physical World

5	The Network of Spatialized Time	95
6	The Networked House and Home	116
7	The Globalized Consumer Network: From Pineapples to Turkey Red Cigarettes to the Bunny Hug	142

	Part III: The Secular, Ecumenical Collective
8	Race Goes Scientific, Then Transnational	177
9	Religion Goes Worldly, Ecumenical, and Collective	218
10	Citizen, Community, State	246
	Conclusion: Who You Are	267
	Notes	277
	Index	305