

Contents

Acknowledgments xi

Abbreviations Used in the Main Text xv

Introduction 1

1. National Risorgimento, the Piedmontese Solution and the Origins of Italian Monarchical Subjecthood (1859–1866) 15

PART ONE

HISTORICAL DEVELOPMENTS DURING THE LIBERAL PERIOD (1866–1922)

2. “Becoming Visible”: Italian Women and Their Male Co-Citizens
in the Liberal State 37
3. Foreign Immigration, Citizenship and Italianità in the Peninsula:
Italiani non regnicoli, Non-Italian Immigrants and Notions of Alienhood 69
4. “O migranti o briganti”: Italian Emigration and Nationality Policies in the Peninsula 95
5. Liberal Italy’s Expansionism and Citizenship Issues (1880s–1922):
Colonial Subjects, Citizens of Tripolitania and Cyrenaica and Dodecanesini 119

PART TWO

HISTORICAL EVOLUTION DURING THE FASCIST EPOCH
(1922–1945)

6. Citizenship of Women and Their Counterpart Throughout the Ventennium 155
7. Fascist Italy's Colonized, Annexed and Occupied Territories:
Citizenship Policies and Native Populations in Mussolini's
Roman Empire 183
8. The Armistice of 8 September, Brindisi and Salò:
Reflections on Citizenship Issues (1943–1945) 217

9. The Birth and First Developments of Italy's Democratic Republican Citizenship (1946–1950) 239

Conclusion: National Citizenship and Italianità
in Historical Perspective 261

Abbreviations Used in the Notes 277

Notes 281

Bibliography 341

Index 395