

Contents

Acknowledgments	ix
Introduction: The University to Come	I
SECTION I: CHALLENGING THREE DECADES OF COLORBLIND RACISM
1 Notes on the Afterlife of Dreams: On the Persistence of Racism in Post-Civil Rights America	33
2 Playing in the Dark: Racial Repression and the New Campus Crusade for Diversity	51
3 The Age of Unreason: Race and the Drama of American Anti-Intellectualism	74
SECTION II: THEORIZING RACE, STATE, AND VIOLENCE: THE PEDAGOGICAL IMPERATIVE
4 Generation Kill: Nietzschean Meditations on the University, Youth, War, and Guns	129
5 Critique of Racial Violence: The Theologico-Political Reflections of Lewis R. Gordon	162
6 Beyond the Blindspot of Race: DuBoisian Visions for a Reconstructed America	191
Notes	245
Bibliography	263
Index	275