

Illustrations

Map

New Spain's cities with multiple mendicant convents, xvii

Figures

1. Percentage of orders' foundations by period, 29
2. Page from a libro de profesiones from the Augustinians' Michoacán Province, 49
  3. Professions per year, 51
  4. Number of friars by province, 53
  5. Genealogía franciscana (1731) from the Franciscan church in Puebla, 78
6. Eighteenth-century statue of San Pedro Nolasco outside the Mercedarian church in Celaya, 82
  7. Scapular of Our Lady of Carmen, 87
  8. Orders' emblems, 91
9. Frontispiece to the original version of Bernal Díaz's Historia verdadera de la conquista de la Nueva España, 190
10. Printed image of Juan de Palafox y Mendoza, 204
11. Saint Maria Magdalena de Pazzi receiving the stigmata from Christ, from the Carmelite church in Puebla, 217
12. Saint Francis of Assisi receiving the stigmata from Christ, from the Franciscan church in Puebla, 218
13. Printed image from an eighteenth-century novena for Saint Dominic's feast day, 229

Tables

1. Foundations by period, 28
2. Average number of friars professing per year, 50
3. Provincial populations, ca. 1675 and ca. 1775, 70
  4. Carmelite and Augustinian masses, 137
5. Orders' most important devotions in New Spain, 139
6. Mercedarian alms remitted from New Spain, 1787-1804, 164
7. Mercedarian and Carmelite masses, 1758-1780, 238