

Illustrations

Maps

1. Percentage of population, Hispanic or Latino (all races), 2000 U.S. Census 4
2. Percentage growth in population, 1990–2000, Hispanic or Latino (all races), 2000 U.S. Census 5
3. Unauthorized immigrant population as share of foreign-born population, by U.S. State of residence, 2008 6

Tables

1. Characteristics of respondents 12
2. Racial and ethnic self-identification of Hispanic respondents 161

Figures

1. Multiple dimensions of contexts of reception 234

Photographs (following page 106)

1. The “new” rural southern economic landscape, dotted by chicken and turkey feathers
2. The “old” rural southern economic landscape, with tobacco harvest

3. Helpful linguistic accommodations made by personnel at a Wilcox County public middle school
4. Hispanic elementary schoolchildren included in the annual Bedford Christmas parade
5. Hispanic newcomer family standing proudly in front of their restaurant
6. “Latino Park” Road near Wilcox County
7. Hispanic youths vying to carry the American flag in the “Parade of Nations,” First Annual La Raza Festival in Wilcox County
8. Hispanic child watching a native white family hesitantly trying tacos and gorditas for the first time, First Annual La Raza Festival in Wilcox County