

Table of Contents

Acknowledgments, ix

Introduction, 1

1. Wheetman Pearson in Historical and Historiographical Context:
British-Mexican Relations, Informal Empire, Mexican National Development, and the Rise of Global Business in the Late Nineteenth Century, 6

2. British Lions:

Business and Politics in Late Victorian and Edwardian Britain, 31

3. The Foundations of a Business Empire:
The Gran Canal in Mexico, 1889–1900, 61

4. The Extension of Empire:

The Tehuantepec National Railway, 1896–1918, 94

5. The Birth of El Aguila and the Apotheosis of Empire,
1901–10, 138

6. The Empire Strikes Back:

Revolution and Counter-Revolution, 1911–13, 165

7. The Unravelling of Empire:

Civil War and World War, 1914–19, 201

Conclusions, 230

Appendix, 241

Notes, 243

Bibliography, 301

Index, 311