

CONTENTS

Introduction 1

COLLEGE MYTHS

- 1 Revenue Sports Pay for Nonrevenue Sports 7
- 2 An Arms Race Drives College Sports Spending 22
- 3 Athletic Departments Are a Drag on the University Budget 41
- 4 Conference Revenue Sharing Levels the Football Field and Basketball Court 59
- 5 Pay-for-play Will Bankrupt College Athletic Departments 80
- 6 Title IX Compliance Must Come at the Cost of Men's Participation 95
- 7 The FBS Playoff Will Be Better than the BCS 110

PRO MYTHS

- 8 Owners and General Managers Are Inept 133
- 9 Owners Lose Money on Their Sports Teams 154
- 10 Player Salary Demands Increase Ticket Prices 170
- 11 Failure to Act on the Issue of Competitive Balance
Is Hurting Some Sports Leagues 188
- 12 Player Drafts and Revenue Sharing Will Improve
Competitive Balance 211
- 13 Owners Should Be More Vigilant in Policing Performance-
Enhancing Drugs 226

viii Contents

- 14 Everybody Loses When Labor-Management Relations
Go South 239
- 15 Major League Baseball Should Emulate the National Football League 253
- Conclusions 271
- References and Further Reading 275
- Index 287