
Contents

Contributors	xi
Introduction	1
WINNIFRED FALLERS SULLIVAN, ROBERT A. YELLE, AND MATEO TAUSSIG-RUBBO
Part I. Histories of the Legal Secular
1. Moses' Veil: Secularization as Christian Myth	23
ROBERT A. YELLE
2. Secular Law and the Realm of False Religion	43
JAKOB DE ROOVER
3. Assenting to the Law: Sacrifice and Punishment at the Dawn of Secularism	62
JONATHAN SHEEHAN
4. National Security and Secularization in the English Revolution of 1688	80
RACHEL WEIL
5. "Intolerance of Intolerance" in the Unitarian Controversy: The Theology of Baker v. Fales	101
STEPHANIE L. PHILLIPS
6. The University and the Advent of the Academic Secular: The State's Management of Public Instruction	119
TOMOKO MASUZAWA

7. Stasiology: Political Theology and the Figure of the Sacrificial Enemy	140
BANU BARGU
8. Against Sovereign Impunity: The Political Theology of the International Criminal Court	160
BRUCE ROSENSTOCK
Part II: Ethnographies of the Legal Secular
9. Sovereign Power and Secular Indeterminacy: Is Egypt a Secular or a Religious State?	181
HUSSEIN ALI AGRAMA
10. The Ruse of Law: Legal Equality and the Problem of Citizenship in a Multireligious Sudan	200
NOAH SALOMON
11. The Religio-Secular Continuum: Reflections on the Religious Dimensions of Turkish Secularism	221
MARKUS DRESSLER
12. “The Spirits Were Always Watching”: Buddhism, Secular Law, and Social Change in Thailand	242
DAVID M. ENGEL
13. Secular Speech and Popular Passions: The Antinomies of Indian Secularism	261
THOMAS BLOM HANSEN
14. Courting Culture: Unexpected Relationships between Religion and Law in Contemporary Hawai‘i	282
GREG JOHNSON
15. The Peculiar Stake U.S. Protestants Have in the Question of State Recognition of Same-Sex Marriages	302
MARY ANNE CASE
16. Sacred Property: Searching for Value in the Rubble of 9/11	322
MATEO TAUSSIG-RUBBO
17. When Is Religion, Religion, and a Knife, a Knife—and Who Decides?: The Case of Denmark	341
TIM JENSEN
Index	365