

Contents

Contributors	ix
Preface	xiii
Introduction: Through the Prism of Sepharad: Modern Nationalism, Literary History, and the Impact of the Sephardic Experience	I
Yael Halevi-Wise
Part I: The Problem of National Particularism in German, English, and French Literature on the Jews of Spain
1. The Myth of Sephardic Supremacy in Nineteenth-Century Germany	35
Ismar Schorsch
2. Writing Spanish History in Nineteenth-Century Britain: The Inquisition and “the Secret Race”	58
Michael Ragussis
3. “Rachel, ou l’Auto-da-fé”: Representations of Jews and the Inquisition in the French Grand Opera La Juive (1835)	91
Diana R. Hallman
4. The Strange Career of the Abarbanels from Heine to the Holocaust	114
Jonathan Skolnik

Part II: Jews and Hispanics Meet Again: Latin American Revisions of Judeo-Spanish Relations
5. Sephardim and Neo-Sephardim in Latin American Literature Edna Aizenberg	129
6. The Life and Times of the Picaro-Converso from Spain to Latin America Yael Halevi-Wise	143
Part III: Between Israel and Spain
7. Facing Sepharad, Facing Israel and Spain: Yehuda Burla and Antonio Gala's Janus Profiles of National Reconstitution Stacy N. Beckwith	169
8. Sephardic Identity and Its Discontents: The Novels of A. B. Yehoshua Bernard Horn	189
Part IV: Postmodern Reimaginings of Sepharad in Francophone, Latina, and Other Transnational Literatures
9. "Le Juif Espagnol": The Idea of Sepharad among Colonial and Postcolonial Francophone Jewish Writers Judith Roumani	213
10. Sephardism in Latina Literature Dalia Kandiyoti	235
11. Sir Salman Rushdie Sails for India and Rediscovered Spain: Postmodern Constructions of Sepharad Efraim Sicher	256
Postscript: Rebecca Goldstein's Spinoza Yael Halevi-Wise	275
Notes	287
Selected Bibliography	345
Index	353