

Contents

Acknowledgments	ix
Introduction: Getting Ready to Read Romans	1
First Part of Romans	13
1. Making Connections (1:1–17), 13
First Phase: The Unjust Social Order (1:18–3:20)	30
2. The Critique of Pagan Injustice (1:18–2:5), 30—
3. Transition: The Impartiality of Divine Justice
(2:6–16), 44—4. The Critique of the Polity of Israel (2:17–3:20), 50
Second Phase: The Coming of Messianic Justice
(3:21–5:21)	59
5. Justice Outside the Law (3:21–31), 60—6. The Justice of Abraham (4:1–25), 70—7. Messianic Justice (4:25–5:11), 80—8. How Much More: The Adamic and the Messianic (5:12–21), 88
Third Phase A: Before and After (6:1–7:6)	99
9. Living After Dying (6:2–11), 100—10. Partial Analogies
(6:12–7:6), 105
Third Phase B: The Great Transition (7:7–8:39)	111
11. Death and the Law (7:7–25), 111—12. The Spirit and Life (8:1–17), 121—13. Affliction and Solidarity
(8:18–39), 130

Fourth Phase: Divine Promise and Improvisation (9:1–11:36)	139
14. Has the Promise Failed? (9:1–29), 140—15. The History of Justice (9:30–10:4), 152—16. Speaking and Hearing: How Justice Comes (10:5–21), 155—17. The Redemption of (All) Israel (11:1–12), 161—18. Warning to the Nations (11:12–24), 166—19. Eucatastrophe (11:25–36), 172
Fifth Phase: The Corporate Improvisation of Justice in the Now-Time (12:1–15:13)	176
20. The Messianic Body (12:1–13), 178—21. Overcome Evil with Good (12:14–13:7), 186—22. After the Law (13:8–14), 194—23. Welcome: The Messianic Sociality (14:1–15:13), 200
Coda	215
24. Paul’s Messianic Mission (15:14–33), 215—25. Traces of the New Sociality (16:1–27), 222
Bibliography	233
Index	239