

Illustrations

Maps

1	Chosŏn Korea as of 1864	xviii
2	Kyŏnggi Province as of 1864	xix
3	Ch'ungch'ŏng Province as of 1864	xx

Figures

1.1	1873 Miryang Pak genealogy recording only three sons under Pak Chu	20
1.2	1924 Miryang Pak genealogy recording a fourth son, Pak Tŏkhwa	21
1.3	Genealogy of the Paks: the first four generations	24
2.1	Pak Myŏngŏp and his known direct male descendants: the senior and junior lines	35
2.2	The senior line	37
2.3	The junior line	42
2.4	A document recording Pak Taedŭk's land inheritance from his mother-in-law, Madam Kim (1777)	44
2.5	Marriage ties between the Paks and the illegitimate-son lines of aristocratic Taegu Sŏ and Yŏhŭng Min descent groups	45

3.1	The senior-line Paks and their in-laws	52
3.2	The junior-line Paks and their in-laws	59
4.1	Head of the 1902 procession as depicted in the royal protocol manual	80
4.2	Procession personnel surrounding the imperial portrait	81
5.1	The Chungin U family	91
6.1	The senior line: Pak Yunsik, Pak Chinsik, and their descendants	113
6.2	The junior line: Pak T'aesik and his descendants	117

Photographs

6.1	Seoul Normal School (date unknown)	119
6.2	Hongju Public Ordinary School (Hongju Kongnip Pot'ong Hakkyo) teachers and students on the commencement day (March 1913)	120
6.3	Pak Ch'angnae at 27 se (1916)	121
6.4	Pak Ch'angnae in his 50s (ca. 1944)	126
6.5	Kim Yonghwa, Pak Pyönggang, Pak Inhüi, and a neighborhood woman (1936)	129

Tables

3.1	Military Guard Agency commanders ( Muwi Tot'ongsa ), 1874–82	65
5.1	Management personnel of Korean Ramie Spinning, Ltd. (1897)	96