

Contents

Preface	vii
Notes on Contributors	ix
List of Abbreviations	xv
PART I: Introduction
1 The Challenge of National Security Andrew M. Dorman and Joyce P. Kaufman	3
2 The United States' Security Challenges of the 21st Century Joyce P. Kaufman	12
PART II: Europe—The Old World
3 France and National Security Adrian Treacher	39
4 German National Security Policy in the Post–Cold War World: An Evolving International Role or a Reluctant Power? Gale A. Mattox	53
5 National Security and the United Kingdom Andrew M. Dorman	74

PART III: 20th Century World
6	Australian National Security: The Problem of Priorities Maryanne Kelton	95
7	Providing for National Security: Canada after 9/11 David Rudd	113
8	Japan's National Security Discourse: Post–Cold War Paradigmatic Shift? Chris Hughes	137
PART IV: (Re-)Emerging World
9	China's National Security Strategy: Waiting at the Crossroads Kathleen Walsh	159
10	India: Security Policy in a Strategic Void Harsh V. Pant	181
11	Russia: A Fallen Superpower Struggles Back Robert H. Donaldson	198
PART V: Potentially (Re-)Emerging World
12	To Survive or Lead? The Two Sides of Nigeria's National Security Strategy Jon Hill	221
13	The Republic of Korea Patrick M. Morgan	236
14	Turkey's New (De)Security Policy: Axis Shift, Gaullism, or Learning Process? Bill Park	254
15	Conclusion Andrew M. Dorman and Joyce P. Kaufman	271
	Bibliography	291
	Index	303