

ILLUSTRATIONS

Map

- 1 The Tequila-Producing Regions of Jalisco, Mexico, 5

Figures

- 1 Field of blue agave in Tequila, Mexico, 4
- 2 The Discovery of Pulque by José Obregón, 1869, 24
- 3 Tequila label illustrating the modern production process, 41
- 4 Tequila bottle in the image of Pancho Villa, 44
- 5 Pancho Villa Tequila, 45
- 6 Editorial Cartoon from 1914: “How Long Will it Continue?,” 54
- 7 Editorial Cartoon from 1914: “A Substitute for Pulque,” 55
- 8 Cantinflas and Manuel Medel, Águila o sol (Heads or Tails) (1937), 70
- 9 Luis Aguilar and Jorge Negrete, Tal para cual (Tit for Tat) (1953), 71
- 10 Pedro Armendáriz, Juan Charrasqueado (Juan Charrasqueado) (1948), 71
- 11–12 Calendar images, Jose Cuervo Tequila, 74–75
- 13 Sara García and Pedro Infante in Dicen que soy mujeriego (They Say I’m a Womanizer), 1949, 79
- 14 Lucha Reyes, date unknown, 87
- 15 Jimador, Herradura Tequila, 101
- 16 Jimador working in an agave field, Amatitán, 102
- 17 Mayahuel, from the Fejérváry-Mayer Codex, 107
- 18 Mayahuel with jimador, Mundo Cuervo, 108
- 19 Billboard entering Tequila with the slogan “Tu Tierra Te Llama, Vívela” (Your Land Is Calling You, Experience It), 115