

Figures and Tables

Figures

1.1	Knowledge structure of transition culture	30
1.2	Global knowledge structure based on connectivity	31
1.3	Global knowledge structure based on national security	32
1.4	Global knowledge structure based on expert national security	33
1.5	Global knowledge structure based on public empowerment	33
4.1	Global distribution of Occupy protests, 2011	122
4.2	Occupy LSX, January 12, 2012	128
4.3	Occupy Wall Street, November 12, 2011	129
4.4	Occupy Wall Street, November 12, 2011	130
4.5	The cultural system distinguishing public from private university	132
4.6	Wisconsin firefighters mobilized in solidarity, February 16, 2011	133
6.1	Pussy Riot's iconic photo	197
8.1	FEPS Young Academic Network, 2012	279

Tables

4.1 Proximate university publics and their articulations	141
4.2 Proximate public articulations of university value	143
4.3 University publics, proximity, and articulations	151
5.1 Average number of articles per year in leading sociology journals engaging particular places	165
5.2 Countries in rank order of article mentions per year in leading international relations journals	166
5.3 Countries in rank order of article mentions per year in leading anthropology journals	167
5.4 Relative attention to places by knowledge cultures, 2002–2009	169
5.5 Mentions of Yugoslavia, Albania, or Kosovo in sociology-related journals, 1890–2009	172
5.6 Mentions of southeastern Europe (SEE) / Afghanistan in sociology-related journals, 1890–2009	184
7.1 Distribution of academic fellowship programs by discipline/country	258
7.2 Rules and resources of transformational knowledge networks	265
8.1 Intellectualities in transformation	284