

FIGURES

1.	Governance of California's Public Education System, 1878	56
2.	Three Major Sources of Funding for the University of California, 1890–1920	110
3.	New Campuses and Extension Programs Established Between 1900 and 1920	123
4.	Governance of California's Newly Emerged Public Education System, 1921	129
5.	1932 Suzzallo Report's Proposed Governance of California Public Higher Education	152
6.	California State Government Operating Expenditures and Revenues, 1939–1960	196
7.	California Civilian Labor Force in Six Major Categories, 1940–1955	196
8.	1957 Additional Centers Report: Priority List for New State College and University of California Campuses	229
9.	California Public Higher Education Enrollment Per 10,000 of State Population, 1920–1960	256
10.	Organization of Master Plan Study, 1959	274
11.	1960 Master Plan Proposed Coordinating Council	280
12.	1960 Master Plan Agreement on Student Admissions	284
13.	Master Plan Full-Time Student Enrollment Ranges for Public College and University Campuses	286
14.	Estimate of Annual Savings and Costs for Higher Education Under the Master Plan, 1965–1966 and 1970–1971	288
15.	1960 Master Plan Estimate of State General Funds and Capital Outlay Needed for Expanding Enrollment	289
16.	The Heart of the 1960 Master Plan for Higher Education	309
17.	Trends in the Establishment of State Coordinating Agencies for Higher Education, 1940–1970	315

18.	Actual and Master Plan Projected Enrollment in California, 1960–1995	317
19.	California Public Higher Education: State and Local Funding per FTE, 1958–1995	318
20.	California Public Higher Education: Total Taxpayer Cost per Student FTE, 1958–1995	319