

Tables

1. Household Chores Done by Singleton Respondents and Those with One Sibling	11
2. Consumer Goods Owned by Respondents' Households Compared with Nationwide	83
3. Literacy Rates of Respondents' Grandparents	90
4. Educational Attainment of Respondents' Parents	91
5. Educational Statistics for Urban Dalian, the Dalian Area, and All of China, 2000	92
6. Respondents' Parents Who Ever Did Elite Work	93
7. Respondents' Ownership of Luxury Goods, by Parents' Education	94
8. Average Class Ranks of Junior and College Prep High School Students, by Parents' Education and Work Status	105
9. Average Class Ranks of Respondents, by Gender and School	114
10. Percentage of Respondents' Parents and Grandparents Who Never Did Paid Work	131
11. Percentages of Respondents' Mothers and Fathers Who Usually Did Household Chores	136
12. Responses to the Survey Question "Would it be better to have a son or a daughter?"	137
13. Percentages of Respondents Who Usually Did Household Chores	165
14. Percentage of Waking Hours During a School Week in 1985-86 That Students at Two American High Schools Spent on Different Activities	175