

Contents

List of Figures and Tables	vii
1. Introduction and Overview	1
PART I EXPENDITURE DECISIONS
2. “Day-Old Bread” Is Worth $20,000 a Year	15
3. Managing Your Credit and Your Cash	32
4. To Rent or to Buy: That’s the Question	49
5. How Much Insurance Should Noah Have Carried on His Ark?	73
6. The Most Expensive U.S. Colleges Are the Best Bargains	98
7. Minimizing the Bites of the Tax Collectors	119
8. Bernie Madoff: Mugger, Con, or Scam Artist?	131
PART II INVESTMENT DECISIONS
9. The Merrill Lynch Hustle: Can You Trust the Brokers?	145
10. Why Are There 10,000 Mutual Funds in America and Only Two and a Half Automobile Firms?	176

11. If You Won $100,000 in the Lottery, How Should You Invest the Money?	206
---	-----

PART III FINANCIAL PLANNING DECISIONS

12. An Overview of Financial Planning	249
13. Your Social Security Benefits Could Be Worth $300,000	263
14. If You Don't Know How Much to Save for Retirement, You Won't Save Enough	279
15. Three Plans So You Won't Outlive Your Assets	300
16. A Cruel Choice: Paying for Medical Recoveries or Health Care	328
17. You Can't Take Your Money with You, But You Can Say Where It Goes	343
18. Ciao and Shalom	359
Glossary	363
Index	379