

MAPS

1. Manchuria, Select Cities 10
2. Government Offices, Military Garrisons, and Agricultural Colonies, Northeast China, 1653–65 40
3. Government Offices, Jehol and Northeast China, 1723–1810 42
4. Mongol Leagues and Banners 44
5. Government Offices, Northeast China, 1868–85 76
6. Government Offices, Northeast China, 1902–10 80
7. Kotoku Survey Sites 108
8. Government Offices, Northeast China, 1912–31 150

FIGURES

1. Population, Manchuria, by Military Region or Province, 1781–1940 9
2. Migrants from North China to Manchuria, Arrivals, Departures, and Net Change, 1891–1942 100

PHOTOGRAPHS

Agriculture 52–53

1. Plowing field for planting soybeans.
2. Harvesting sorghum [gaoliang].
3. Threshing sorghum by bamboo flail and stone roller.
4. Grinding grain by millstone.

9. Carts taking soybeans to market.
10. The “forest of junks” in Newchwang harbor.
11. Construction of the South Manchuria Railway.

Commerce 190–91

12. Soybeans delivered to Changchun rail yard.
13. Logging on the Sungari River.
14. The main gate to the walled city of Jilin.