

Tables

2.1. First- and Second-Generation Immigrants Among Adult Citizens, by Race and Ethnicity, 1994–2000	18
3.1. First- and Second-Generation Immigrants as a Proportion of the U.S. Resident Population, 1850–2000	28
3.2. States in Which First- and Second-Generation Immigrants Are 25 Percent or More of the Total Population, 2000	31
3.3. Top Ten States by Proportion of First- and Second-Generation Immigrants, 1900 and 1930	33
3.4. Years in the United States Prior to Naturalization for Select Years, by Region of Origin, 1970–2002	35
3.5. First- and Second-Generation Citizens as a Proportion of the Adult Citizen Population, by State of Residence, 2004	38
4.1. Social Incorporation and Voting, by Race and Immigrant Generation	57
4.2. Institutional Barriers and Voting, by Race and Immigrant Generation	61
4.3. Mobilization Contexts and Voting, by Race and Immigrant Generation	65
4.4. State Political Culture and Voting, by Race and Immigrant Generation	67
5.1. Levels of Voting Participation by Race and Immigrant Generation	81
5.2. Mean Values of Selected Factors by Race and Immigrant Generation	82

5.3. Repressive and Communist Country Origin and Voting Among First-Generation Immigrants, 1994–2000	90
5.4. Dual Nationality and Voting Among First-Generation Immigrants, 1994–2000	94
5.5. State Ethnic Concentration and Probability of Voting by Immigrant Generation, 1994–2000	102
5.6. Access to Spanish Language Ballots and Probability of Voting Among Latinos	106
5.7. Household Language and Probability of Voting Among Latinos	111
6.1. Immigration Coverage One Month Prior to Election Day, 1994–2000	121
6.2. Political Threat and Mobilization Among Immigrants by Race and State of Residence	129
6.3. Electoral Mobilization and Political Threat Among Immigrants, 1994 and 1998	137
6.4. Threat, Mobilization, and Change in Participation Across Space	139
7.1. Participation in Various Types of Political Activities, by Race and Immigrant Generation	147
7.2. Participation in Various Types of Political Activities Among Latinos by Language of Interview	160
A.1. Number of Respondents by Race, National Origin, and Immigrant Generation, CPS 1994–2000	179
A.2. Number of Respondents by Immigrant Generation and National Origin, Ethnic-Specific Surveys	181
A.3. Logit Regression of Voting Among First-Generation Immigrants, CPS 1994–2000	182
A.4. Logit Regression of Voting Among Second-Generation Immigrants, CPS 1994–2000	184
A.5. Logit Regression of Voting Among Third- and Later-Generation Immigrants, CPS 1994–2000	186