

Contents

List of Tables	vi
Acknowledgments	vii
Introduction: Rewriting Guatemala's Nineteenth Century	1
1. The Transformation of Mam Quezaltenango from Culahá to Independence	17
2. Disputing Property: National Politics and Local Ethnic Conflict in the Formation of a Guatemalan Coffee Zone	39
3. Debt, Labor Coercion, and the Expansion of Commercial Agriculture	72
4. Intoxicating Politics: Gender, Ethnicity, and Alcohol in the Transition to Liberal Rule	103
5. From Ladino State to Ladino Nation: The Malformation of Guatemalan National Identity	136
6. Popular Insurrection, Liberal Reform, and Nation–State Formation: Final Reflections on Guatemala's Nineteenth Century	170
Notes and Abbreviations	195
Index	245