

Acknowledgements

Introduction

1. History as Force Field in Pound, Zukofsky, and
2. From Natural to Social Place in Olson and Creeley
3. Creeley, Duncan, and the Uses of Abstraction
4. Poetic Authority and Mass Audience During the Vietnam War in Duncan and Levertov
5. The Problem of Political Poetry and the Polarization of the Field in Levertov and Dorn

Conclusion

Notes

Bibliography

Index