

Contents

Illustrations ix

Acknowledgments xi

1. Rethinking Indigenous Devotions in Central Mexico 1
 2. Before 1571: Disciplinary Humanism and Exemplary Punishment 26
 3. Local Cosmologies and Secular Extirpators in Nahua Communities, 1571–1662 62
 4. Secular and Civil Campaigns Against Native Devotions in Oaxaca, 1571–1660 102
5. Literate Idolatries: Clandestine Nahua and Zapotec Ritual Texts in the Seventeenth Century 124
6. After 1660: Punitive Experiments Against Idolatry 159
 7. In the Care of God the Father: Northern Zapotec Ancestral Observances, 1691–1706 192
 8. From Idolatry to Maleficio: Reform, Factionalism, and Institutional Conflicts in the Eighteenth Century 232
 9. A Colonial Archipelago of Faith 269

Glossary 283

Abbreviations 287

Notes 291

Bibliography 337

Index 361