

Contents

Acknowledgments		xii
	Introduction: The Imagined Individual at the Borders of Contract	i
PART ONE	GIFTS AND PROMISES REVISITED
	1. The Revolution in Consideration Doctrine	15
	2. The Gift Beyond the Grave: Case Law	43
	3. Responding to Revolution: Moving Gifts and Consideration Through the Twentieth Century	68
	4. Speculating on Gifts and Promises	83
PART TWO	SPECULATIONS OF CONTRACT
	5. Distinguished Gambles: The Struggle to Separate Speculation and Insurance from Gambling	97
	6. "Contracts" for "Futures": Commercial Speculation and the Gambling Stigma	105
	7. Wagering in Lives: The Life Insurance Speculators	126
	8. Acquisitive Individuality Versus Communal Efficiency: Conflicting Policies and the Love-Hate Relationship with Risk	147
PART THREE	THE NARRATIVES OF INCOMPLETE CONTRACTS
	9. Framing Incomplete Contracts	163
	10. The Use and Abuse of Historical Narrative: Debates over Incomplete Contracts	188
	11. Evaluating the Frame of Incompleteness Discourse	217
	Conclusion: Undermining the Metaphysics of Contract	227
	Index	239