

Contents

List of Tables	vii
List of Figures	ix
Acknowledgments	xi
Contributors	xiii
Introduction	1
Victor Nee and Richard Swedberg
PART I: The Dynamics and Contradictions of Capitalism
1 The Systemic Anticulture of Capitalism	21
Russell Hardin
2 Tocqueville and the Spirit of American Capitalism	42
Richard Swedberg
3 Income Inequality and the Protestant Ethic	71
Robert H. Frank
PART II: Politics, Legal-Rational Institutions, and Corruption
4 On Politicized Capitalism	93
Victor Nee and Sonja Opper

5	Law, Economy, and Globalization: Max Weber and How International Financial Institutions Understand Law Bruce G. Carruthers and Terence C. Halliday	128
6	The Social Construction of Corruption Mark Granovetter	152
PART III: Religion
7	The Role of Spiritual Capital in Economic Behavior Barnaby Marsh	175
8	Political Economy and Religion in the Spirit of Max Weber Robert J. Barro and Rachel M. McCleary	190
9	Beyond Weber Michael Novak	220
PART IV: Methodological and Conceptual Issues
10	The Collective Dynamics of Belief Duncan J. Watts	241
11	Analytical Individualism and the Explanation of Macrosocial Change Ronald Jepperson and John W. Meyer	273
12	Bootstrapping Development: Rethinking the Role of Public Intervention in Promoting Growth Charles F. Sabel	305
	Index	343